Verbs, Nouns - A Puzzle Any Year

Becoming competent secretaries and businessmen are the goals of the students in the commercial classes. At first, typing was peck, erase and try again. Shorthand was just "curly cues" but after two years we mastered the technique. After graduation, we will take our first step into the boss's office, bringing with us the "know how" we acquired in the office practice, shorthand and typing classes. Thank goodness, the teachers encouraged us to learn "the right way."

We Acquired Valuable Business Training

Seeing business in action are these Business Practice students who visited the Nicholas County Bank. Watching Mrs. Phyllis Taylor operate one of the machines are first row: Loraine Evans, Mary Sebert, Kathryn Rogers, Fred Burdette, Donald Hanna, Darrell Brown, Bucky Bennett, and Milton Woods. Second row: Cecil Thomas, Margaret Fowler, Wayne McCutcheon and Ronald Case.

Making a lovely creation is not the only asset girls acquired in the sewing class. Learning how to arrange furniture, the care of household materials and home nursing are all aids which will be useful in future life. Smiles spell triumph when a classmate or a teacher compliments a student on an article of apparel she has made for her project.

Busy as bees, these girls strive to make their first ensemble perfect. Working hard are, standing: Priscilla Rohmiller, Freda Cavendish, Joan Helms and Karen Cobb. Seated: Daisy Krantz, Rosa Lee White, Mary Ann Summers, Johnna Moore, and Violet Tinnel.

Cooking, Sewing, A 'Must' For Girls

Miss Hazel Dorsey finds herself in a lot of dough as she shows these Home Economics I girls the correct way to roll out drop cookies. Watching the culinary exhibit are Rose Ann Wiblin, Paula Ward and Pat Trent.

Ralph Morris, instructor, gives these girls last minute instructions before they take their operator's test. Ready to depart are Helen Groves and Ruth Rader, as Judy Brown passes on her way to class.

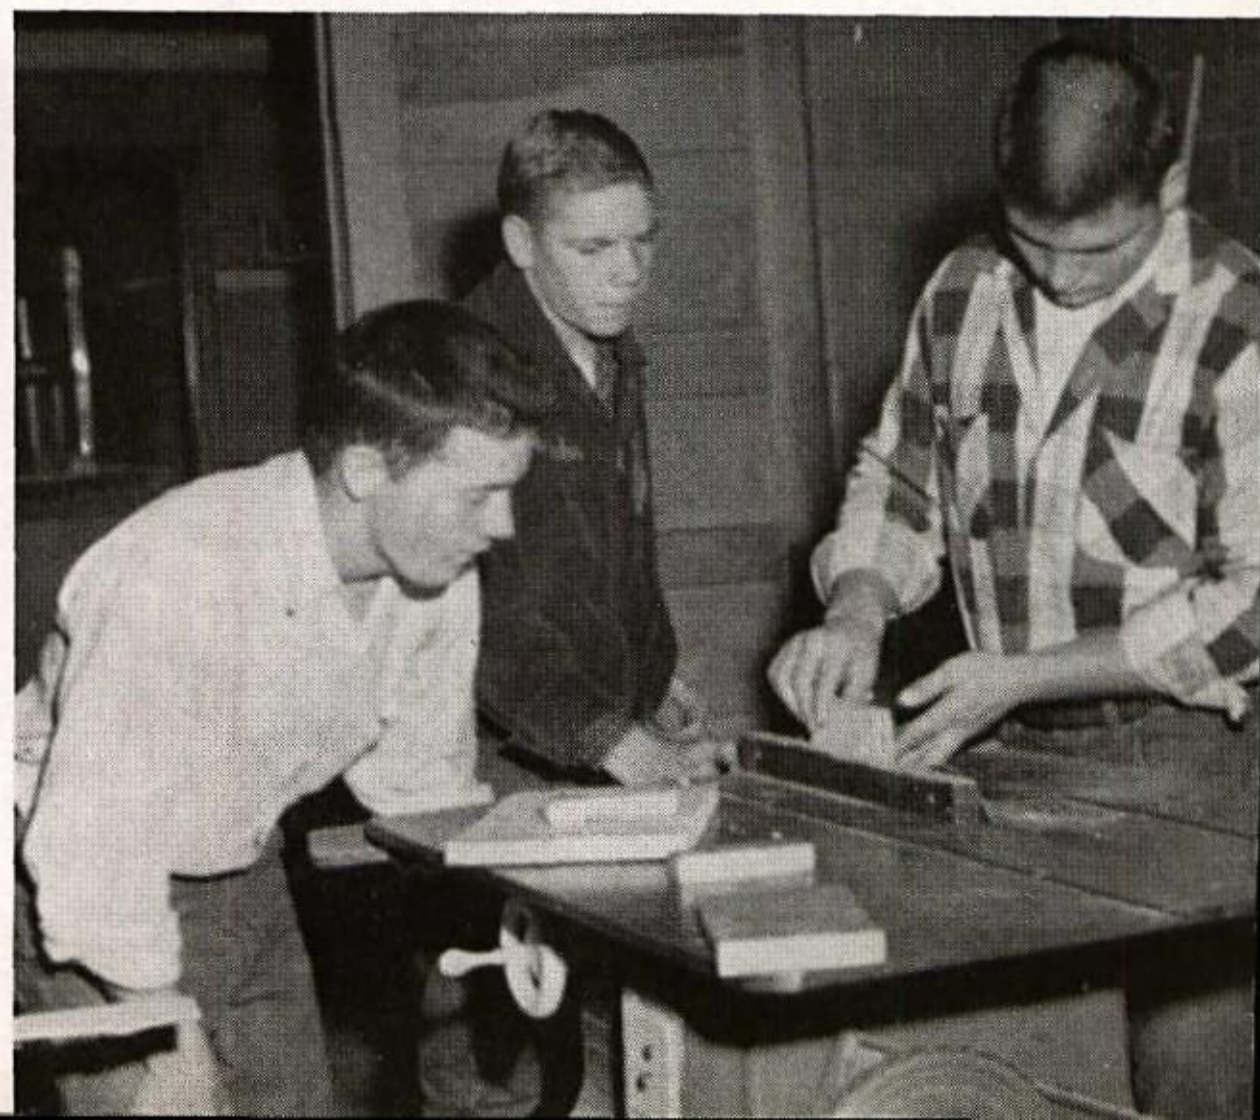

Working tirelessly, these Band I students have their eyes set on the big marching band. Busy practicing are, first row: Patty Facemire, Patricia Cavendish, Larry Jones, Delbert Vickers and Romie Taylor. Second row: Janet Young, Mona Maynard, Nancy Wiseman, Rozella Abner, and Reva McMillion. Third row: Dewey Berry, Edna Donaldson, Nancy Baker and Brenda Taylor.

Varied Curriculum Develops Many Skills

Using the planer and seeing if the edge is level is one of the varied jobs in shop. Dickie Jackson and Charles Tucker look on as Bob Bell checks his work.

Driver's education, band and vocational agriculture are some of the varied courses available to interested students. Any junior or senior over 16 may enroll in one semester of driver's education. "Don't run when you see the car coming; these students are the best trained drivers on the hill." Band is available to students in grades seven through twelve. "Join this group early and be proud to march in the big band later." Any boy who lives on a farm may benefit from four years of training in the Vo-Ag department. A varied curriculum helps develop a well-rounded student body.

It looks as if Coach James Gladwell must have told his World History class another joke. Forgetting their studies momentarily are, first row: Barbara Losch, Gene Strickland, Thurl Morris and Donald Bennett. Second row: Mary Bell Brown, Fred Foster, J. W. Mink and J. D. Norman.

We Learn More Than Reading, Writing...

Finding the place they are studying helps these World Geography students remember the location. "Discovering" a new country are Kay Cogar, Judy Greaser, Mike Trimble and Emogene Hypes.

Dates, dates, and more dates—History is a story of the lives, thoughts and action from the beginning of man's existence. Eager sophomores venture forth into World History and World Geography to prepare themselves for American History the next year. Modern techniques, such as globes, maps, movies and slides help to relive the memorable events of history. Memorize the dates and learn the past events of the world to be more able to understand the world of today. Who knows—one of us may be featured in a history book someday.

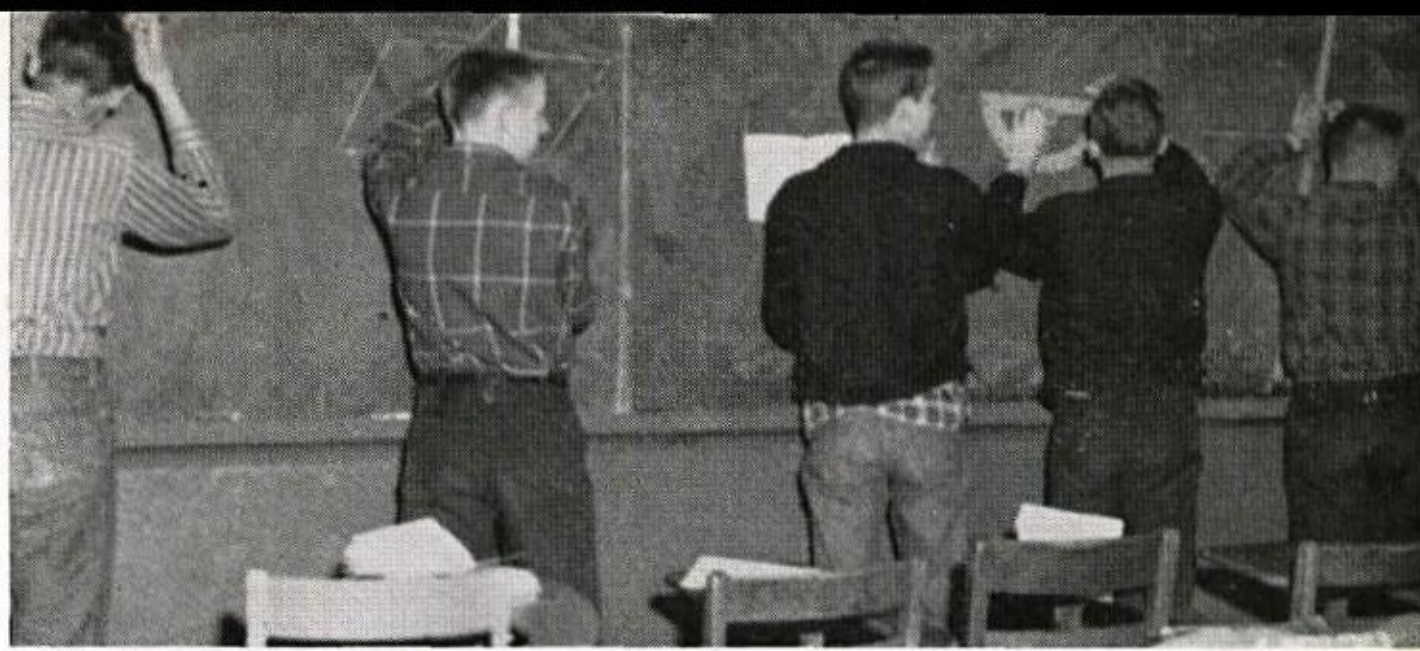

Putting what they learn to use, these students send up a hydrogen-filled balloon. Watching the take-off are Nancy McDowell, Ricky Jones, Mike McClung, Polly Brown, Mr. Pitsenberger, Lawrence Young, Mike Lett, Clarence Wiblin, Joel Lee Groves, Gary Ramsey, Paul Woods, Dave Holbert, Janet Westfall, Jane Hinkle, Joe Summers, Eugene Jackson, Van Summers, Jack Perkins, Diane Galeener, Esther McClung, Gary Stout and Dale Beam.

Experiments Confirm 'Book Learning'

Studying the instructions and measuring the chemicals carefully are necessary for a successful experiment. Busy at work are, standing: Clarence Wiblin, Margaret Alley, Janet Westfall and Jane Hinkle. Seated: Lawrence Young, Gary Stout and Penny Nichols.

Boyle's Law, atomic weight and chemical symbols delight these students who combine atoms and molecules for unexpected results. Future nurses, doctors and chemists enjoy discovering the various functions of nature. And, who knows, another Florence Nightingale or Robert Boyle may come out of this group.

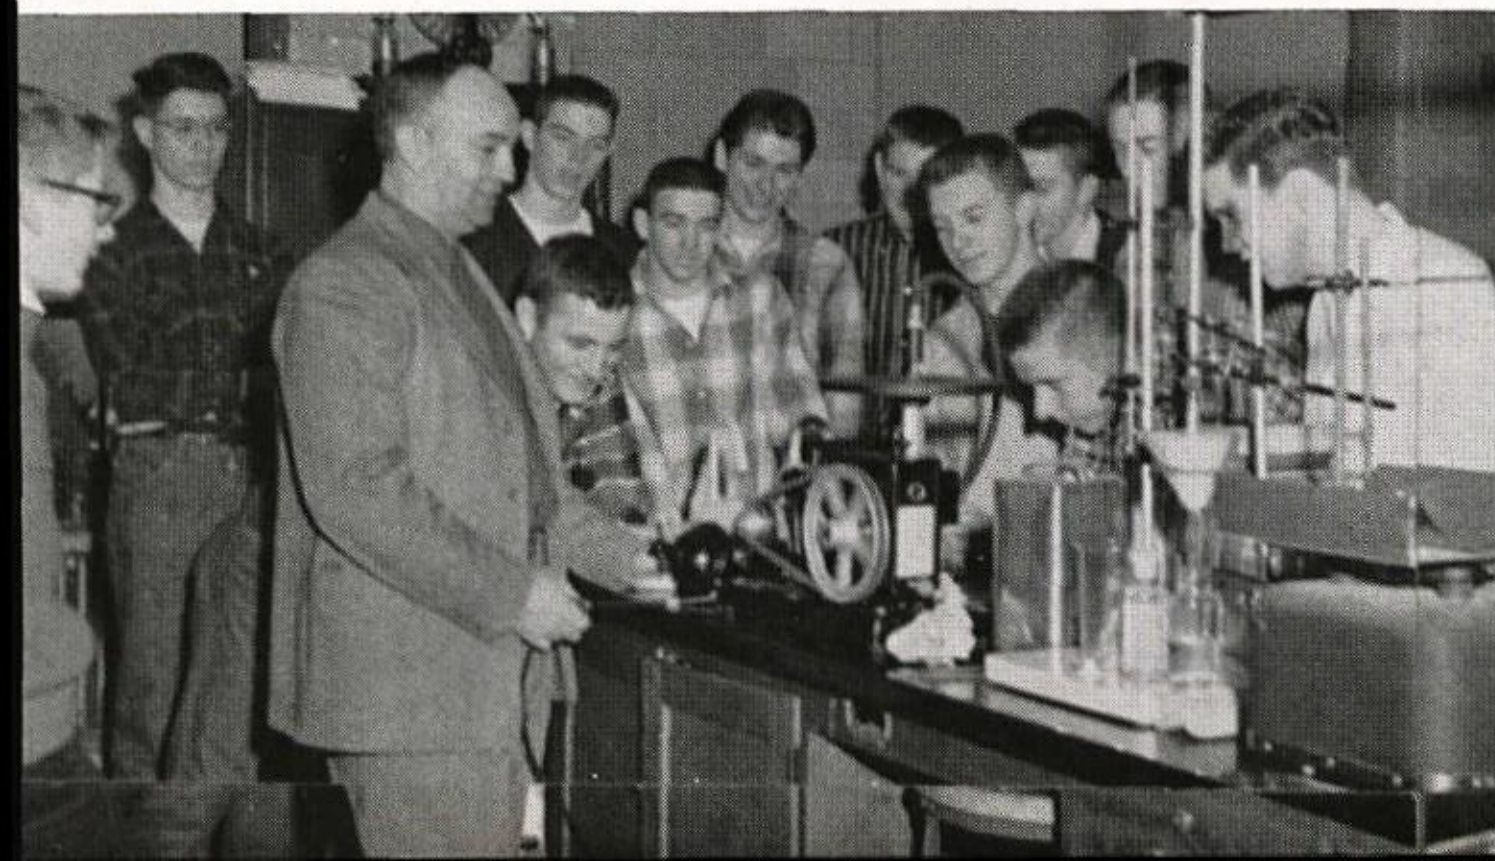

Perplexed looks are often seen on the faces of students in higher math. Struggling over a problem are Gary Stout, David McCue, Raymond McCutcheon, Joel Lee Groves, and Sam Strickland.

Rosalie Brick and Betty Lou Hamilton find dissecting frogs and fish much more interesting than the diagrams in the biology book.

Scientific Exploits Fascinate Students

The American Education Week parade on November 13 climaxed the week-long celebration honoring the schools, faculties and students in our nation.

Weeks of preparation and cooperation on the part of citizens all over the county helped to make this parade a huge success, according to all reports by the crowds who lined the streets.

Future businessmen and secretaries proudly represented the commercial department. Shown using the office equipment are Jerry Rose, Hilda Groves, Martha Tyree, Irene Young.

Students, Teachers Join Forces

Both brawn and brains had their place in the parade. The N-Club was represented by Henry Lilly, Ed McClure, Nicky Nichols, Bobby Jack Legg and J. W. Mink dressed in various sports attire. The National Honor Society was represented by Alice Morriston, Jack Perkins, Patty Hackney and Kash McClure wearing banners signifying Character, Leadership, Service and Scholarship.

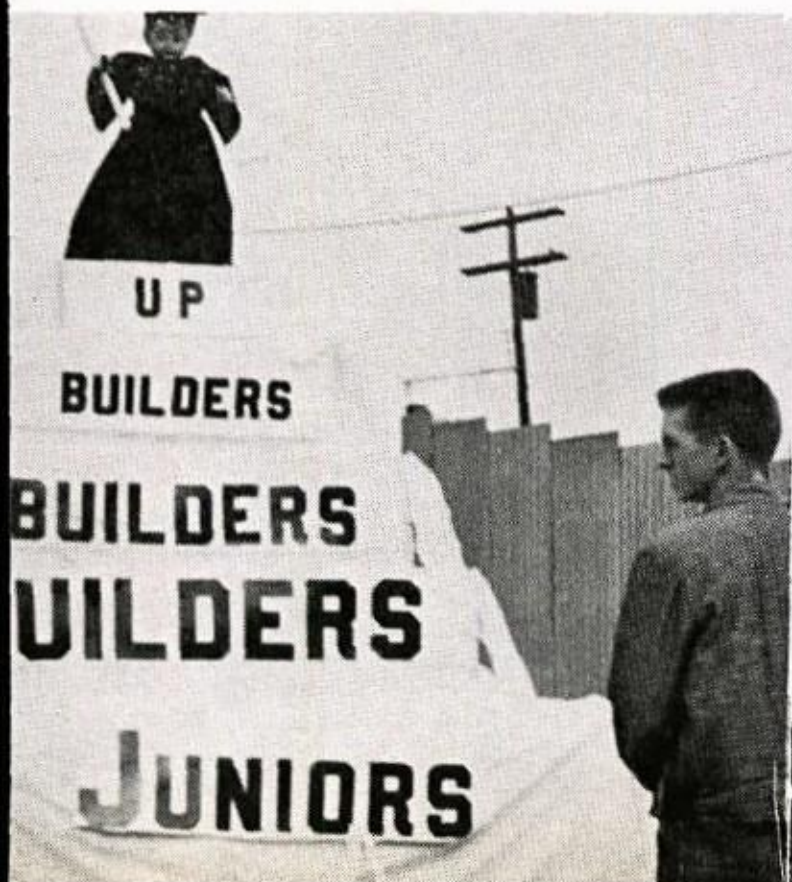

The mile-long parade was led by these girls carrying the theme "An Educated People Moves Freedom Forward." Holding high the banners are Barbara Starcher, Helen Woods, Evelyn Carte, Edna Elliot, Shirley Mollohan and Sue Ann Strader.

The spectators seem to wonder, "Have the 'horse back riding' days returned?" No, it's two Thespians, Mac Cavendish and Mike McClung, impersonating the stars of their favorite Western television program.

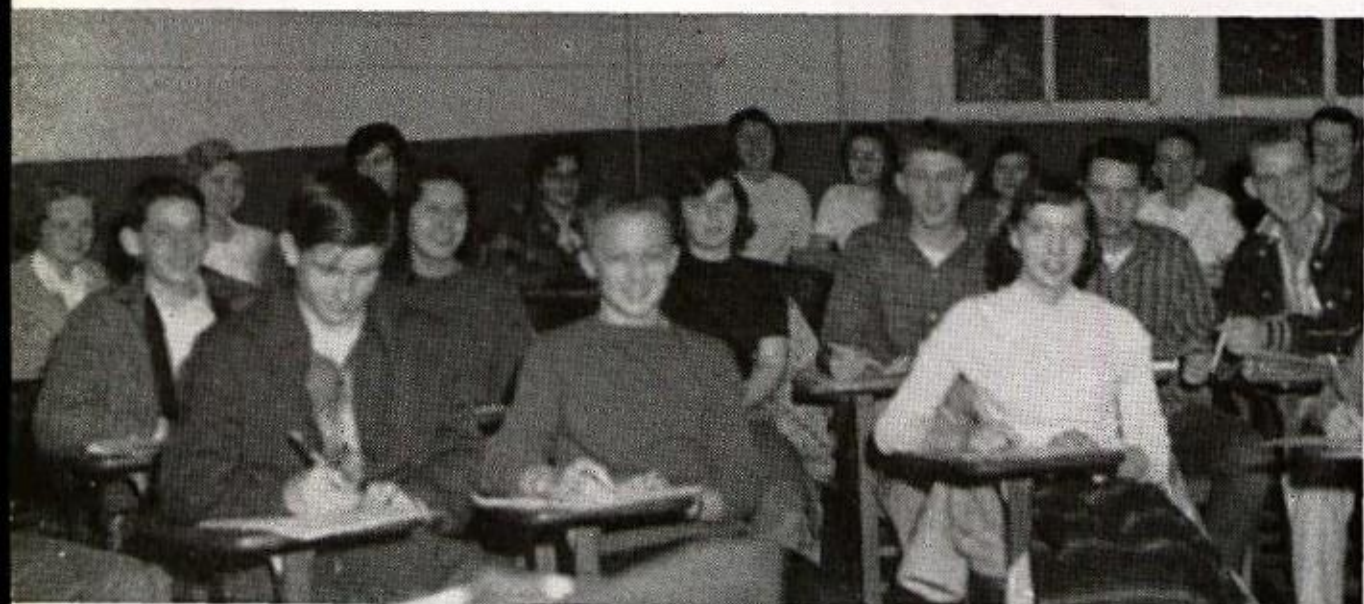

To Make First AEW Parade A 'Hit'

Many hours of preparation went into the floats that showed the public the many activities carried out "upon the hill." At left Dellis Brown looks over the junior class float. Right: Eddie Bell, Walter Rogers, Danny McClung and David Lunter of the chemistry department display some of the equipment they use in class.

Social Studies Broaden Student Outlook

Fun At The Sideshow

(Activities)

Always ready for that "down beat," whether they are outside for a football game or inside during concert season are these Gold and Blue "bandsters." Seated: Penny Nichols, Nancy Rose, Carol Frame, Ramona Frame, Priscilla Tinnil, Paula Taylor, Shirley Wagner. First row: Sam Strickland, Nancy Strickland, Janet Westfall, Vanra Grimes, Lynda McDowell, Lynda Beale, Carolyn Wilde, Sue Mason, Ann Chapman, Deanna Grose, Brenda Rogers, Jane Hinkle, Kelly Lett, Sandra Walker, Margie Rife, Geraldine Sparks, Elsie Deal, Mary Armstrong, Mary Ann Summers, Martha Wallen, Harriet, Smith. Second row: Lou Gill, Nancy Huffman, Karen Dotson, Judy Grose, Eddie Grose, Rebecca Grose, Cora Belle Malcolm, Patsy Dorsey, Ronda White, Paul Cook, Gary Beale, Sandra Given, Sue Roark, Pat Rollins, Marilyn Grose, Jewel Morrison, Judy Mullens, Dora Burkholder, Gloria Hughes, Rosemary Dotson, Patty Barnett,

Music, Trips, And Fun Highlight

Who knew that rain and mud could cause such a disgusted look on Mr. Nicosia's face as he waits patiently for a clear sky during the combined band practice at Richwood.

Providing halftime entertainment at football games, the Gold and Blue Marching Hundred did much to increase school spirit by playing at pep meetings and for many other activities outside regular class routine.

Highlighting the summer of '57 were many varied activities that kept the members of the band on their toes. An outdoor concert was given in the arena at the County Fair. The band was featured at the dedication of the swimming pool, and at the opening of the Laird Memorial Clinic.

In addition to leading the parades in honor of the National Marble Champion, and National Education Week, the band gave a concert for the annual Carnifax Ferry Celebration.

Due to the "flu" epidemic, only about 70 of the 100 members of the band reported to the gym at 5:30 a.m. to travel to Morgantown to take part in the annual High School Band Day, October 26, at the W.V.U.-William and Mary football game. The majorettes were honored by receiving a place on the 50-yard line to "show-off" their famous pyramids.

Life in The Music Department

At majorette camp near Detroit, Michigan, "our seven" copped the best twirling award, while Carol Frame received the team trophy and Penny Nichols the showmanship award.

After the football season the band settled down to a study of more serious music in preparation for the annual Spring Concert. Such numbers were featured as "The Nutcracker Suite," and "Buglers Holiday," a trumpet trio composed of Mike Lett, Donald Dietz, and Betty Trent.

Band sergeant and master sergeant were new additions to the merit and demerit system this year as set up by the band council.

Ending their musical high school career under the "wonderful" leadership of Charles Nicosia, will be the band's twenty-one senior members after the Marching Hundred attends the Strawberry Festival in June at Buckhannon for two days, and after their performance on Wednesday, August 20, at the State Fair at Lewisburg, where they will appear in the morning and will give a concert that night.

Recording the day's demerits is Nancy McDowell as other members of the Band Council, Joe Mike Lett, Janet Westfall, Penny Nichols, Sam Strickland, and Joel Lee Groves consider carefully all of their decisions.

Auxiliary Groups Require Talent, Work

Polka! Rhumba! Waltz! Rock and Roll! You name it and the Dance Band will play it as they have done for many dances in and around Summersville this year. Seated: Billy Joe Sparks, Mary Ann Summers, Donna Huffman, Sam Strickland, Nancy McDowell and Ralph Brock. Standing: Eddie McMillion, Forrest Ramsey, Teresa Pugh, Charles Nicosia, Mike Lett, Donald Deitz, Betty Ann Trent, Gary Wilson and Vanra Grimes.

"Helping Others," is the main purpose of the Guidance Council who are shown looking over materials they use to help students plan their future. Standing are Joel Lee Groves, Judy Greaser, Gary Wilson, Millie Grogg, and Janet Westfall. Kneeling: Sam Strickland, Ann Chapman, and Dyer Herold.

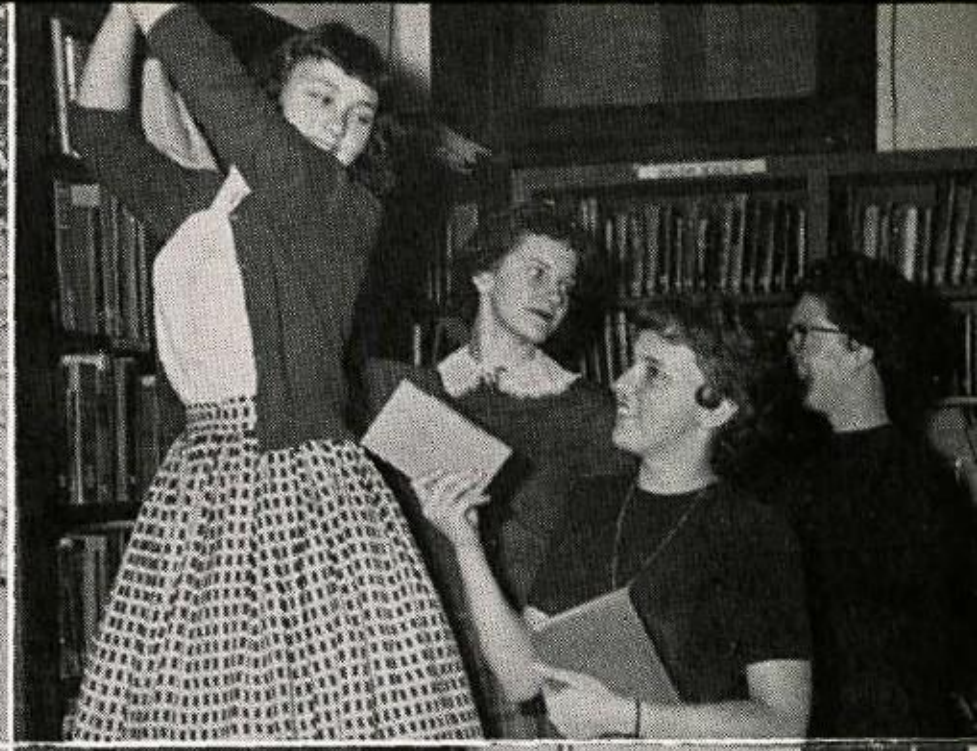

Filing, Testing, Directing Is Our Job

"We are serving our school," is the motto of the eight members of the Student Guidance Council. These students perform a valuable service to the school. Each member of the council works one period each day with the counselor. Helping to score tests, making profile sheets, filing and checking out vocational material, filing admits, calling students for interviews, and doing many routine jobs which saves time for the counselor and enables her to greatly extend her services to the students.

Two boys and two girls are selected by the council from the sophomore class each year to replace the graduating seniors.

Each year many special projects are carried out by the members. This year's projects included: lunch hour movies, articles on vocations in the school paper, posters for the bulletin board during American Education Week and representation in the parade. Two citizenship awards are sponsored each year for the two seniors, a boy and a girl, who are selected as being most worthy of it.

Members assisted with College Day, Career Day, and Eighth Grade Visiting Day, and also sponsored a tea in honor of the students that made the first semester honor roll.

All magazines must be sorted and bound for further use. Norma Brown examines a completed volume while Dolores Russell, Betty Dillon, and Marcella Sparks continue working. Books must be checked in then returned to the shelves. Busy at this necessary duty Bonnie Shelton, Molly Russell, Patty Hackney, and Hilda Groves. Calling the roll and checking out books is one of the many duties of the library assistants. Seen at work are Millie Grogg, Sue Nutter, Cora Belle Malcolm, Violet Sparks, and Harriet Smith. All library records must be checked and typed. Ruth Rader looks on as Margaret Alley begins to dictate some typing to Alice Morriston.

Library Duty Consists of Varied Tasks

Nancy McDowell instructs Elsie Deal, Patsy Dorsey, and Delaine Hamric in the correct way to use the card file.

This worthwhile group, the Assembly Committee, searches diligently for outstanding programs in the fields of entertainment and instruction.

In May of each year, two freshmen are selected by the Guidance Council on a basis of leadership, personality, character, and scholastic achievement to serve for three years.

Planning outstanding entertainment and finding an appropriate date for each is a big task. Discussing a forthcoming program are Rebecca Grose, Mary Sue Mason, Van Summers, Sam Strickland, Mrs. Esther Golden, sponsor; Nancy McDowell, and Mrs. Lucy Carroll, sponsor.

Entertainment Brightens School Life

Approving all social functions is the responsibility of this group. Caught enjoying a good joke are seated: Eddie McMillion, Wendell Dodrill, and Donald Dietz. Standing: Karen Dotson, Mrs. Fae Groves, sponsor; Eleanor Morton, and Carole Keenan.

Composed of two members from each of the three upper classes, the Social committee decides whether we should have a party, dance or a picnic, or whether we should not.

Their job is to see that each social activity is properly chaperoned and a clean-up committee is on hand after it is over.

The members are chosen at the end of their freshman year by the Guidance Council.

The primary purpose of the 9-Club is to support the athletic association but other school activities are "helped, too."

One of the club's functions is making signs for all ball games and placing them in the downtown store windows. They also make signs for any school activity that needs publicity.

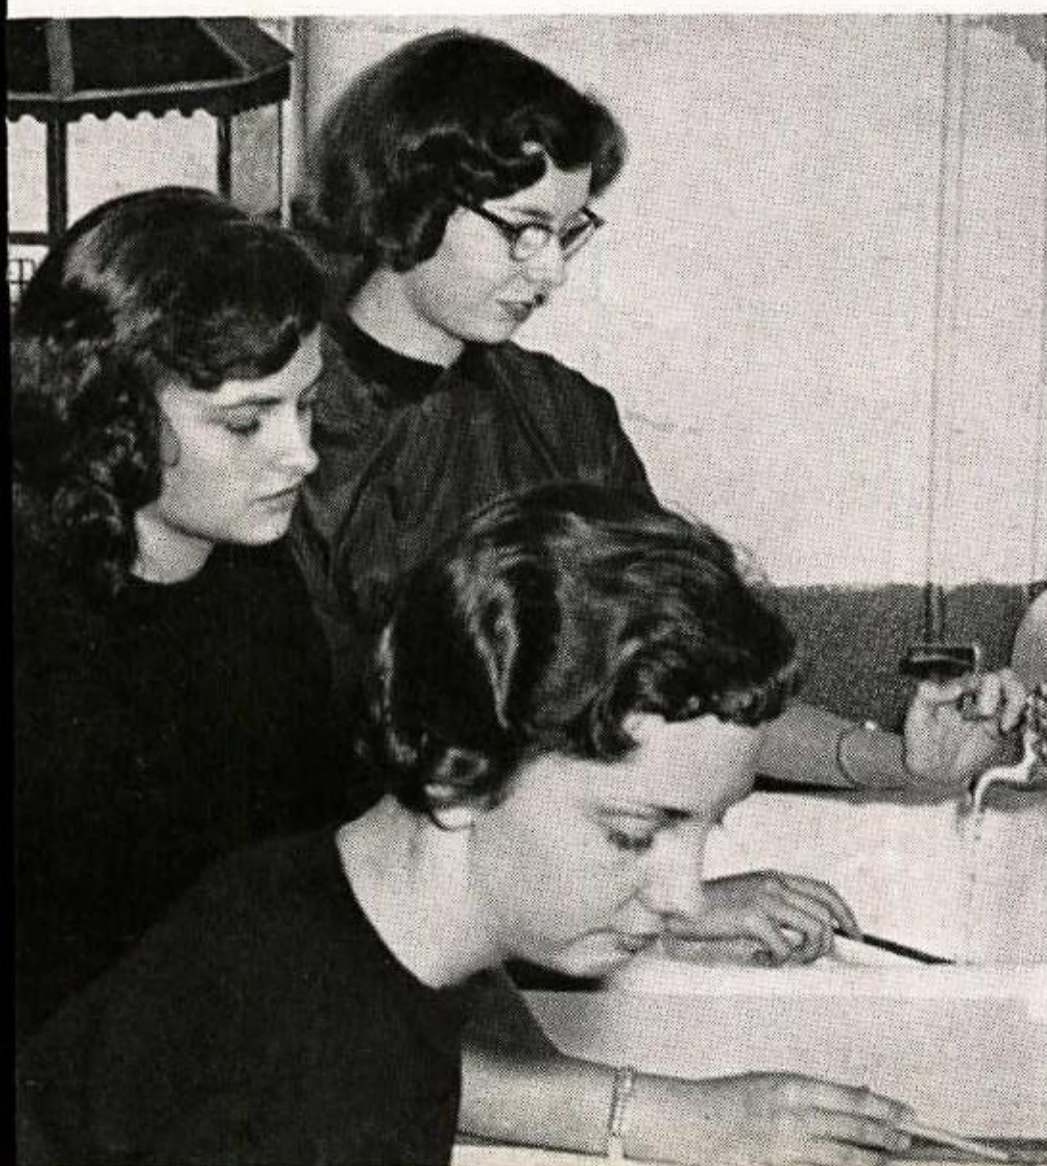

Each year the club sponsors the sale of mums for the homecoming game. Selling candy and chewing gum in the concession stand and collecting tickets at football and basketball games are other jobs of the club members.

Selling and collecting tickets is another important duty of the girls of the 9-Club. Lula Wiblin, Alice Morriston and Margaret Alley are taking care of the main gate.

What would a game be without the candy these girls always have ready to sell? Working in the concession stand are Violet Sparks, Margie Champe, Millie Grogg, and their sponsor, Mrs. Irene Skaggs.

Many Groups 'Use' These 'Workhorses'

The social life of the club members is not neglected, however. Each year at the beginning of school, the new members entertain the old members at a movie and supper. At the end of each school year all 9-Club members go on a roast, and each girl may invite a guest to attend with her.

Club members are selected at the end of their sophomore years to serve for the next two years.

One of the important jobs of the 9-Club is painting signs for the football and basketball games. Seen getting ready for a game are Agnes Tyree, Sandra Nichols and Betty Lou Snodgrass.

"Acting is our business," is proved by Eddie McMillion, who makes like a monkey as other Thespians observe with interest. Kneeling: Eleanor Morton, Sam Strickland, David McCue, Ricky Jones, Nancy Strickland, Jane Hinkle, Ann Chapman and Judy Greaser. Standing: Mrs. Mattie Lett, Mrs. Alice Strickland, Mrs. Ruth Perrine, sponsors; Mike Lett and Elsie Deal.

Honor Lies In Acting Well Your Part

Each actor has his individual way of learning and these Thespians become amateur actors as they present 3 one-act plays and study the fundamentals of dramatics. Seen rehearsing on the campus are seated: Mary Sue Mason, Raymond McCutcheon, Nancy McDowell, Edward Grose, Kash McClure, and Penny Nichols. Second row: Mac Cavendish, Betty Dillon, Janet Westfall, Mike McClung, and Joel Lee Groves.

The horrors of initiation over, these members of the N-Club reminisce of the hard work and fun they had in the various sports in which they participated and look forward to their annual trip. Seen seated behind the "tools of their trade" are Mike McClung, Kash McClure, George Ritchie, Irvin Moore, Frank Young, Ed McClure, Bobby Jack Legg, Jack Perkins, Mike Bays and Henry Lilly. Standing: Coaches Bob Burruss and James Gladwell.

Development of body, mind and spirit is the goal of these Y-Teens. First row: Mrs. Frances Poole, Marcella Sparks, Eleanor Morton, Millie Grogg, Patty Backus, Lynda McDowell, Agnes Tyree, Janet Westfall, Nancy McDowell, Alice Morriston, and Mrs. Barbara Summers. Second row: Betty Dillon, Margaret Alley, Ruth Lewis, Gartha Burkholder, Norma Brown, Jo Anne Garrett, Patsy Dorsey, Nancy Strickland, Patty Hackney, Ruth Rader, Mary Armstrong. Third row: Dora Lilly, Cora Belle Malcolm, Penny Nichols, Sandra Nichols, Irene Young, Barbara Morrison, Nellie Nutter, Jo Frazier, Marilyn Loving, Sandra Given, Iva Ayers, Barbara Sebert, and Mary Lou Brown. Fourth row: Shirley Wagner, Judy Brown, Joyce Grose, Charlene Tyree, Tiny Cogar, Carol Drennen, Belle Rader, Teresa Pugh, Betty Trent, Betty Lou Hamilton, Carolyn Wilde, Linda Beale, Nancy Huffman, and Lou Gill. Fifth row: Carol Frame, Nancy Rose, Gay Garrett, Karen Adkins, Carol Cool, Sarah Jean Neil, Jolene Hughes, Rosalee Brick, Margie Rife, Sue Roark, Martha Wallen, Sandra Walker, Karen Dotson, and Doris Brown. Sixth row: Ramona Frame, Paula Taylor, Mary Keenan, Clotelle Ashley, Rebecca Grose, Ruth Ann Grogg, Sue Worlledge, Judy Young and Beverly Russell.

Better Homes In The Future - A Goal

"It takes a heap of living in a house to make a home." Working towards this goal are the Future Homemakers under the supervision of Miss Hazel Dorsey and Mrs. Virginia Simms.

Being an active club they give an assembly program, sponsor the "Mother and Daughter Tea," and have a series of parties, roasts, and square dances. Also the members serve at various banquets.

The homemakers attend the annual regional meeting at Concord College. During the summer, representatives are sent to the F. H. A. Camps at Ripley and Jackson's Mill.

At the annual Christmas Party given by the F. H. A. the needy children from the first grade of the local grade school, who might not otherwise have a nice Christmas, are the honored guests. Santa Claus (Nancy Strickland) and Lula Wiblin talk to the youngsters who will receive gifts from old Santa.

Cleaning out the smokehouse and putting the tools in working condition is necessary on every farm. Busy at work are Orville Lewis, John Murphy, Lonnie Strickland, Lowell O'Dell, Jerry Cross, Larry Nutter, Harold Jarvis, Jerry Rapp, Eugene Chapman, Delbert Copenhaver, Chester Worlledge, Robert Dorsey, and Bobby Coulter.

They Help Grow The Food

Shop work includes learning how to operate the jig-saw and electric sharpener correctly. Practicing correct working habits are Robert Taylor, Rodney Dodrill, William McCutcheon, John Grose, Charles Tucker, Freddie Huffman, and Charles Huffman.

Performing one of the essential jobs necessary for a good orchard, apple tree pruning, are these Future Farmer boys. Seen at work are Roland Sigman, Paul Strickland, Holden Martin, Dean Skaggs, Bob Bell, Grant Lewis, Bob McClung, and Harold Thompson.

Tinkering with the tractor is both fun and educational. Examining the parts are Forrest Hughes, Bobby Neil, Fred Hinkle, Dennis Huffman, Jimmy Evans, Benny Backus, Billy Dorsey, Billy Harlow, Dickie Grose, Reginald Sparks, Dyer Herold and Roger Copenhaver.

That Makes Our Nation Great

Substitute teaching is one of the privileges of senior club members from which they gain a lot of valuable experience. Practicing on the second grade are John Hendrickson, Kash McClure, Sandra Nichols, Penny Nichols, Mike McClung, and Agnes Tyree.

Students Become 'Teachers For A Day'

Playground supervision is a part of every grade school teacher's duty. Seen around the pipe jungle are Priscilla Tinnil, Elsie Deal, Eddie McMillion, Joan Morriston, Donna Huffman, Carole Keenan, Dolores Russell, Brenda Young, Frank Young, Nancy Ray, Mac Cavendish, Margaret Alley, Nicky Nichols, Jack Perkins, Lawrence Young, and Miss Mary Wilmoth, sponsor.

Receiving pointers in elementary teaching from Hoyt Dean, who was one of the club's guest speakers this year, are these Future Teacher members. Seated: Annabelle Harrison, Patsy Dorsey, Patty Hackney, Nancy McDowell. Standing: Alice Morriston, Janet Westfall, Judy Grose, Dudley Dorsey, Carlos Rapp, and Mr. Dean.

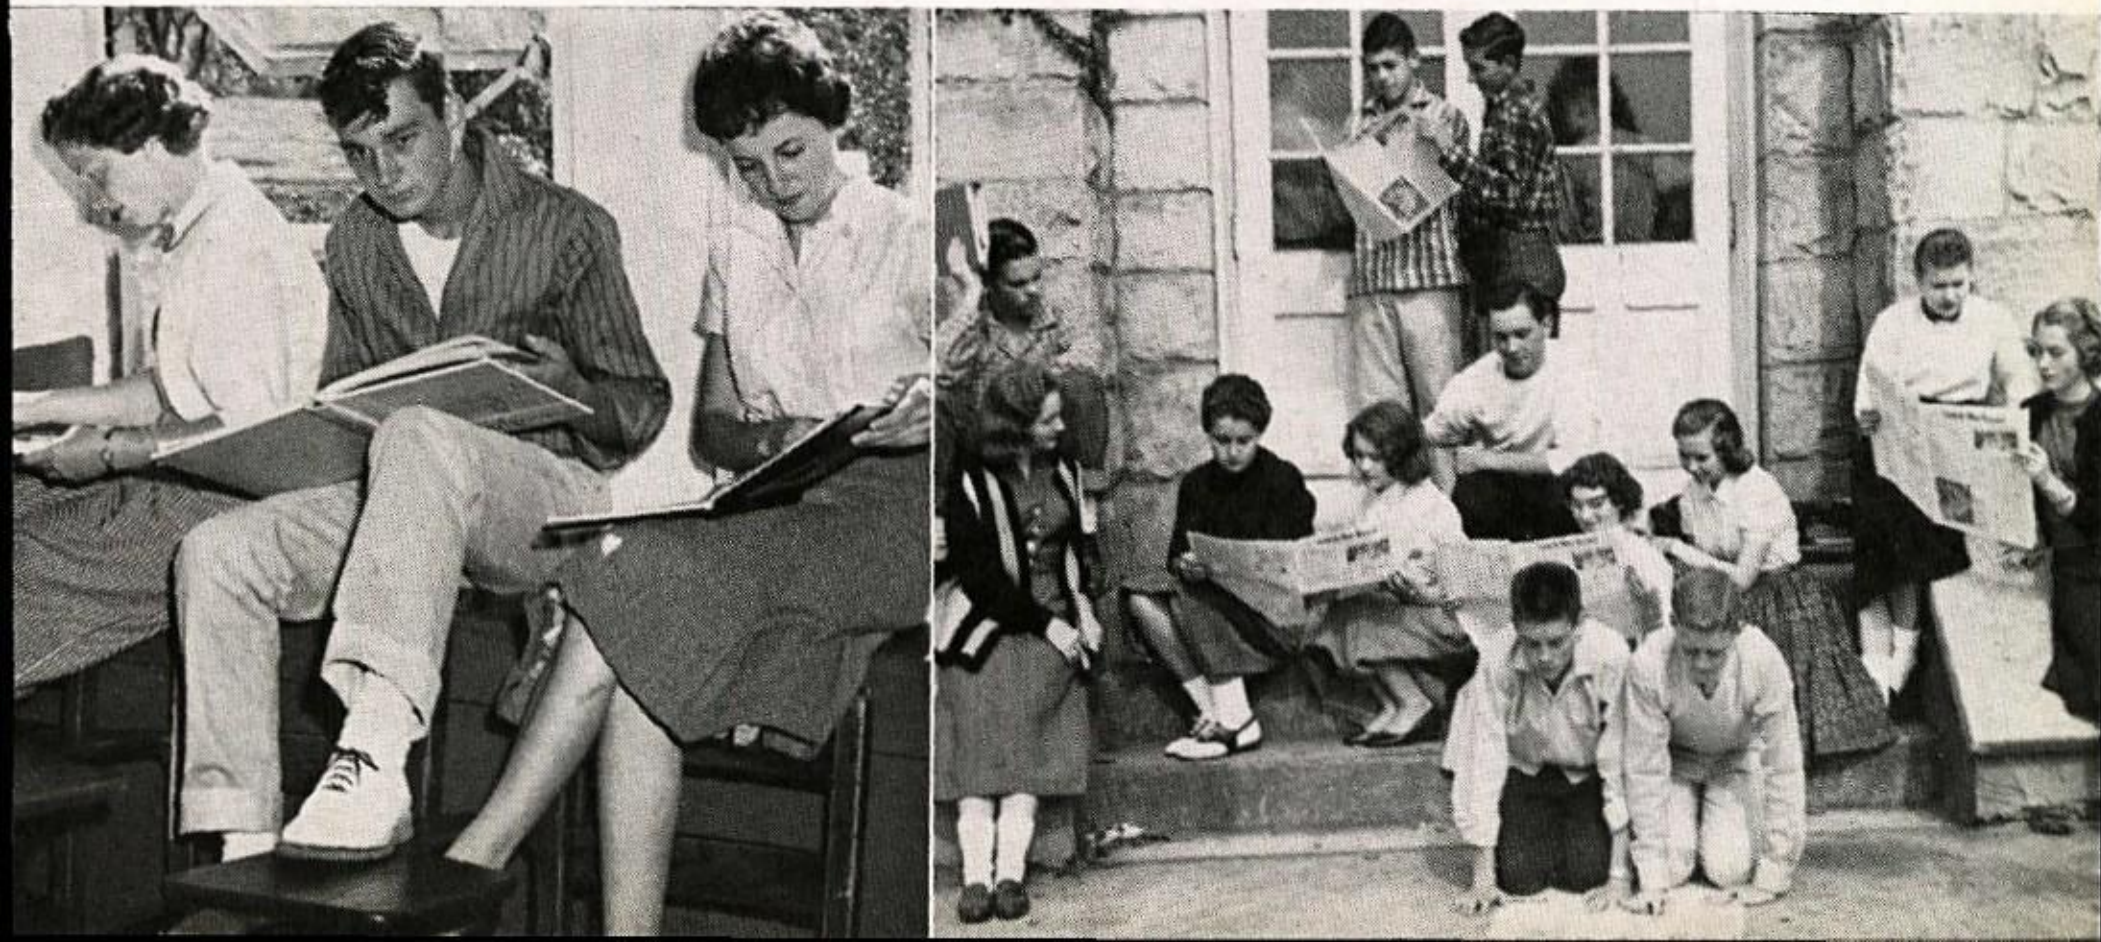

Learning about the "inside work" of the Gold and Blue Record are these Journalism I students: Kenneth Shalap, Shirley Rodebaugh, Thelma Samples, Sandra Ward, Norma Jane O'Dell, Nelson Moore, Zane Stephenson, Paul Woods, Judy Murphy, and Clarence Wiblin.

'Your Business Is Their Business'

Deeply engrossed in thought are the Journalism II students taking a few minutes to study annuals after the school paper is finished. Caught sitting in the window are Charlotte Cavendish, Aaron Cadle, and Lula Wiblin, who make up the editorial staff for The Gold and Blue Record.

Finding and sharing their first printed story with classmates is a big thrill for these aspiring journalists. Engrossed over the latest edition of the paper are kneeling: Don Koon, and David Lunter. Seated: Ricky Jones, Harriet Smith, Betty Ann Trent, Lovie Lester, Roy Brown, Carol Fisher, Tiny Cogar, Joan Morriston, and Donna Huffman. Standing: Donald Dietz and Douglas Dorsey.

Very surprised to find Grandad, played by Carlos Rapp, at home in bed after calling the detective, Dudley Dorsey, to find him are Mrs. Morton, Nancy McDowell; Betty Shadduck, Penny Nichols; and Jack Norwood, Jack Perkins. Getting a laugh out of the situation is Mrs. Jobe Fenny, Betty Dillon. Mrs. Abby Higgins, Janet Westfall, and Jim Mahoney, Forest Ramsey; strike up a friendly conversation.

Seniors Frolic In 3-Act Farce

Tilly, the maid, played by Nancy Strickland, who later helps Grandad, Carlos Rapp; get out of the house to have some fun with his old friend, now brings him his dinner. Finding himself in a mess is Kip Shadduck, Mike McClung; who discovers that the girl next door with whom he has a date turns out to be triplets, who are Trudie, Millie Grogg; Judy, Frances Morrison; and Ludie, Carolyn Murphy.

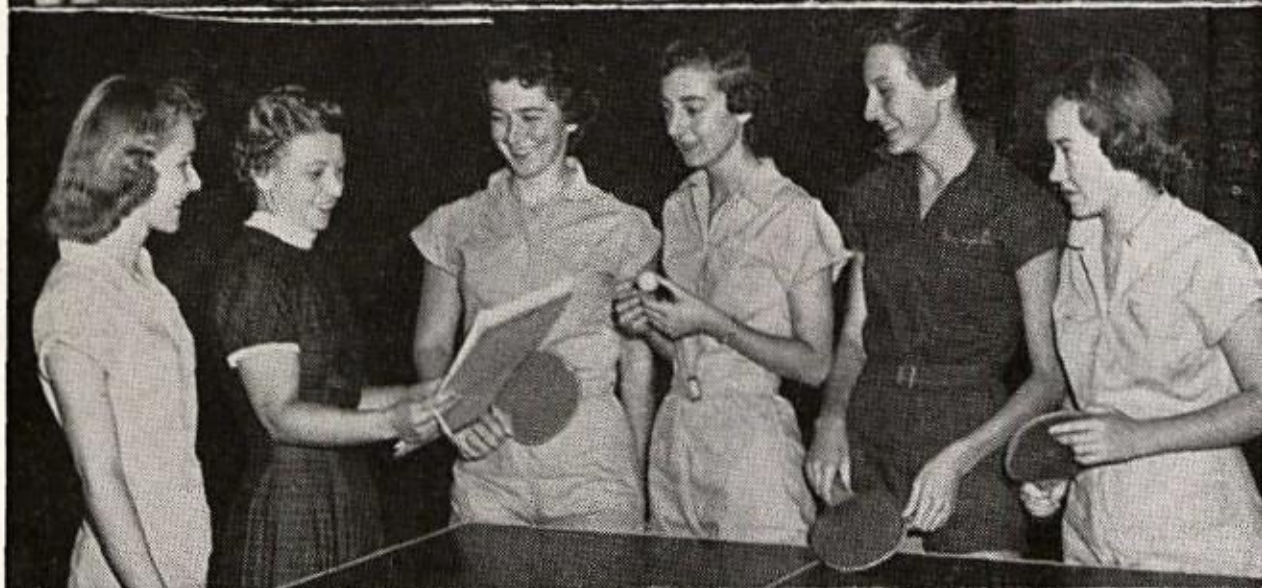

Eleanor Morton Susan Hall
June Foster Linda Simms
Nancy Ray

Basketball, a popular, vigorous sport which predominates during the winter season is being played by Jane Hinkle, Patty Backus, Paula Taylor, Belle Rader, Lynda McDowell, Sandra Walker and Teresa Pugh, shooting.

As a part of their athletic program these G. A. A. members learn the fundamentals of "ping pong" from their sponsor, Mrs. Marguerite Halstead: Penny Nichols, Eleanor Morton, Janet Westfall, Becky Grose, and Alice Morriston.

These Girls

Performing feats involving balance and coordination are these athletic minded girls. Seen on the floor are Linda Beale, Karen Adkins, June Foster, Judy Kay Murphy, and Cora Lee Shaver. Standing: Carol Frame, Shirley Wagner, Ramona Frame, Margie Champe, and Lynda Sims.

National Honor Society Heads Many

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor a student can receive during his high school career. Members are not chosen on scholarship alone, but must also achieve high standards of leadership, character, service, and be approved by members and faculty. The organization, which last spring celebrated its 20th anniversary, is under the guidance of Mrs. Esther Golden and Mrs. Martha Smith.

Getting off to a good start, the society presented a special program in a fall assembly concerning race relations, and featuring a choral reading, "And No One Asked."

During football and basketball seasons, members worked in the concession stand selling coffee, soft drinks, and candy. In this way, money was raised to use for special projects.

Each member was placed on one of the committees emphasizing character, scholarship, leadership, or service. This year the committees were lead by Penny Nichols, Joel Lee Groves, Kash McClure, and Janet Westfall, respectively.

Each year, two induction ceremonies are presented to which parents and friends are invited. During the first semester, seven seniors were inducted in the program entitled, "The Road to Progress." Good traits and bad traits portrayed by members, met at the crossroads, each choosing the road to failure or the road to progress.

Institutions such as the home, church, school, and nation, were featured in the second induction ceremony held in March. Ten per cent of the junior class were selected to become members during this program which was followed by a reception given in honor of the new members and their parents.

A new activity of the society this year was the entering of a float in the American Education

Worthwhile Projects And Activities

Week Parade. During this week members presented special readings and skits on the intercommunication system, concerning importance of an education and of good citizenship.

The chapter in addition to these activities, presents a scholarship of $100 to one senior each year and also presents awards to seniors having outstanding records in science, mathematics, drama, music, social studies, commerce, and English.

In the spring members and their guests get together for a day of fun on the annual picnic-outing at Watoga State Park.

Serving the society this year as officers were Sam Strickland, president; Jack Perkins, vice-president; Nancy Strickland, secretary; and Millie Grogg, treasurer.

Junior Cast Causes Thrills and Chills

And The Homecoming Queen - Sandra Nichols

Riding "High on a Cloud," the Senior Class float, is Sandra Nichols, "Miss Grizzly" with her escort Bill McClung as they await the start of the Homecoming Parade.

"All Smiles," is the Maid of Honor, Priscilla Tinnil, and her escort, Raymond McCutcheon, on the convertible decorated by the Junior Class and driven by Gene Stephenson.

Princess Patsy Hughes escorted by Layne Rader were chosen by their classmates as eighth grade attendants. Driver of the car is Edgar McDaniel.

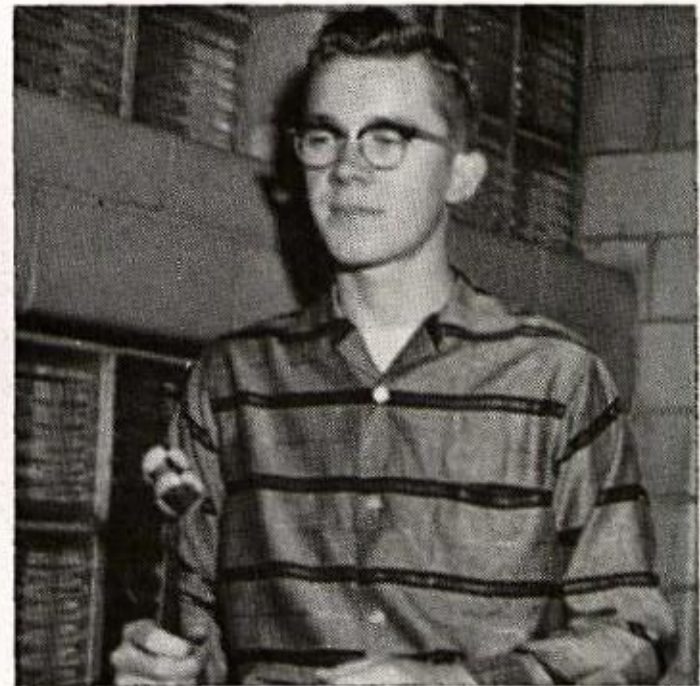

Representing the seventh grade were Princess Marty Lewis and escort, Steve McCue, perched atop a decorated Thunderbird, driven by Jack Heater.

Gladwell's Bears Claw Through

The Nicholas Grizzly gridiron squad wrapped up the football season with a four win, four loss, and a tie record. Coach James Gladwell and assistant Robert Burruss had a tough pre-season training period with a team comparatively green to football action as there were only three returning regulars.

Halfback Henry Lilly was the backbone of the Bear offense as he scored four touchdowns, passed to Irvin Moore for four more, and ran six extra points. Lilly gained 509 yards rushing and did most of the punting and passing. Booting the ball on kickoffs were either Jimmie Rogers or Mike Bays.

Taking advantage of Bulldog fumbles, the Bears defeated Cowen 12-0, there, in the opener, September 6. Joe Summers ploughed six yards for a touchdown and covered a fumble for another.

The jubilant Grizzlies calmed somewhat, when on the following Friday, Hinton registered a 12-0 victory, here. Lilly made his debut in this game and gained 30 yards to be the top ground gainer.

An 18 yard TD pass from Lilly to Moore, late in the fourth stanza, saved the day for the locals as they barely skimmed to a 7-0 win over Sutton, September 20. Joe Summers ran the extra point.

The Gladwellmen fell prey to the Gassaway Elks, 13-7, the next week on the Elk's gridiron. In an effort to overcome Gassaway's 13 point

Season Boasting 4-1-4 Record half-time lead, Lilly fired a pass to Moore from their own 25, and Moore galloped 75 yards to paydirt, with Lilly plunging for the PAT, but there the scoring ended.

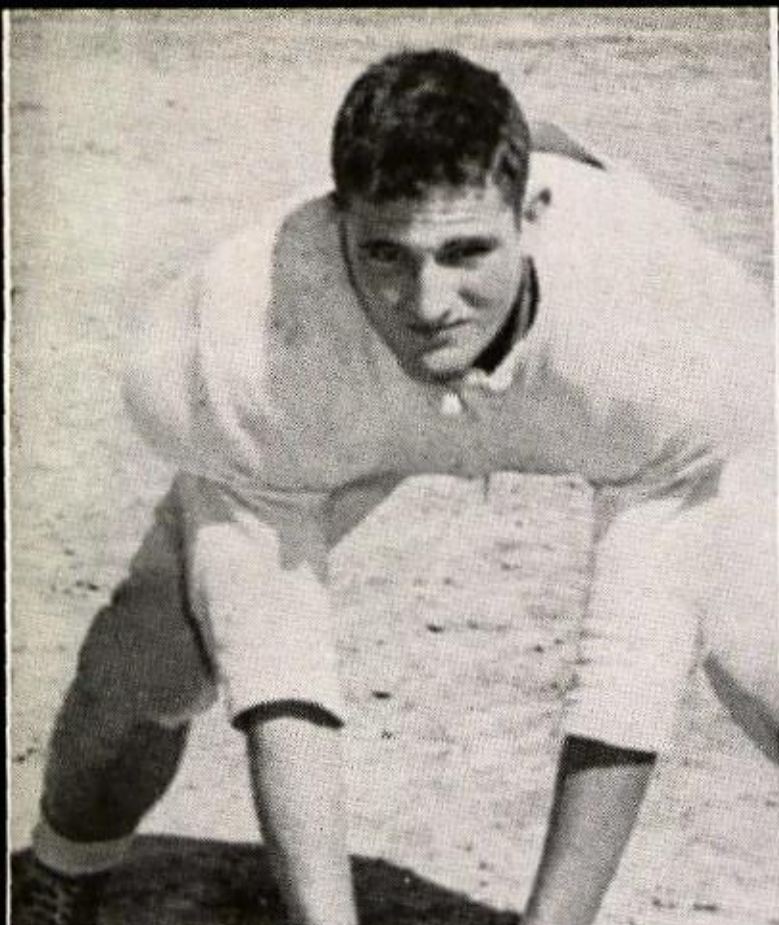

It was a one sided affair all the way (more than the score indicated) for the Bears, October 4, when they trounced Webster Springs, 13-0, with "all hands and the cook" seeing action. Lilly pushed across both scores in the first half and ran the extra point.

The locals took a jolting 19-6 shellacking from the Travelers of Gauley Bridge, October 11, on the home turf. Lilly got the ball rolling early for the Bears when he ambled 16 yards for a score during the first two minutes of play. Gauley let the first period slide by without scoring but managed to jab over a touchdown during each of the following quarters.

Getting off to another fast start when Joe Summers bulled across from the one-yard stripe, the Grizzlies tied Man 13-13 the following Friday. The Hillbillies scored later in that stanza and again at the first of the third with a PAT after the latter. Until the last two minutes of the game, the score remained the same when Summersville gained possession of the ball on the 20 and brought it up the field in long drives to the six inch line where Lilly did the honors and also ran over the extra point.

etteville the next week. The Pirates started the scoring with a 14 yard TD early in the first quarter, but the Bears retaliated with a four yard pass from Lilly to Moore in the second and in the third with another pass by the Lilly-Moore machine while later in the third Tommy Carte dashed 22 yards to paydirt. The extra points for all three were run by Lilly. Fayetteville scored twice in the fourth making both extra points to end the scoring.

In the season's finale, November 8, the Grizzlies were out-hunted by the Richwood Lumberjacks in a 20-0 landslide, at Richwood. Richwood was in full control throughout the game, netting 213 yards rushing and 16 first downs to the Grizzlies, 53 rushing, and four first downs.

Although the going was often rough, Coaches Bernard Poole, James Gladwell and Robert Burruss were always on the sideline to give their teams the needed encouragement.

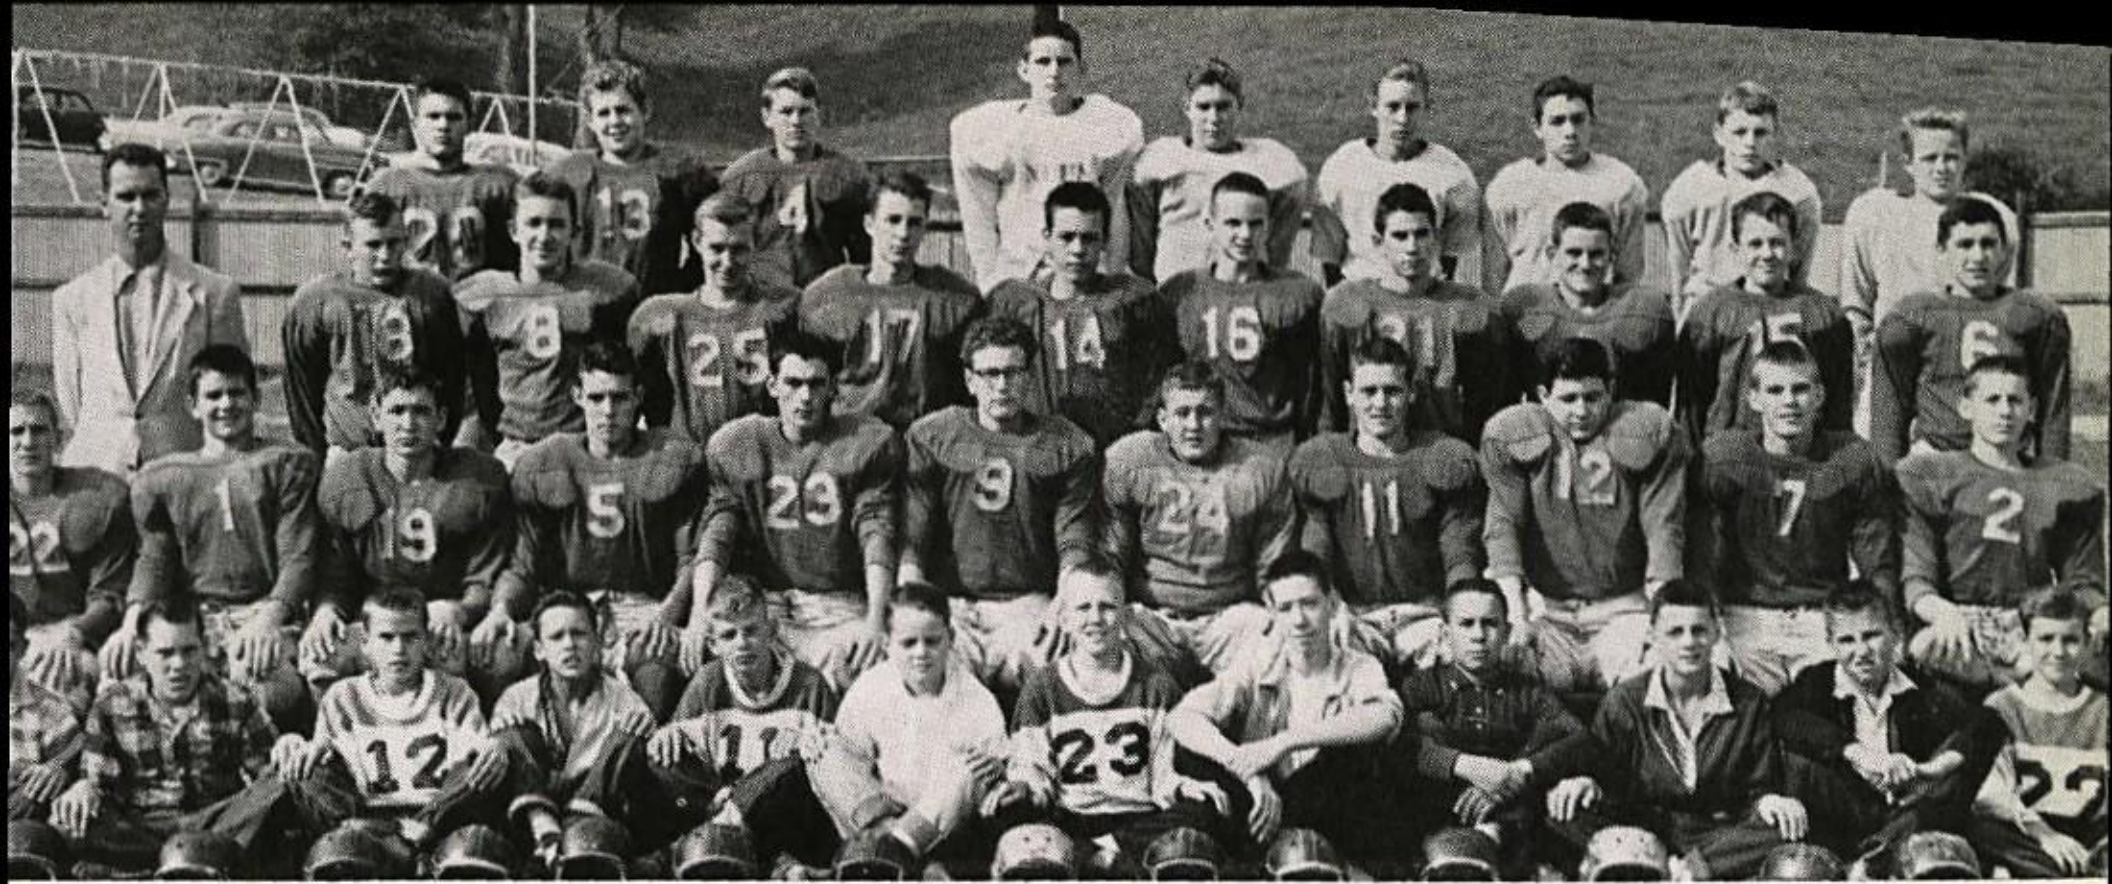

Fast Backs, Heavy Line, Add To Success

Top Left: Irvin Moore gets his man "but good" as he and a Hinton ball carrier take a tumble in the mud on the local field.

Right: It was on a 48 yard run play, and Henry Lilly, 44, seems to have outwitted the entire team as he slips unnoticed past the line and back field of Gauley Bridge.

Poole Boosts Cubs To 6-1-0 Record

Little giants that they are, the Nicholas Cubs fought a rugged season to an end with a six win, one tie, and no loss record, under the guiding hand of Coach Bernard Poole.

The Junior High was composed of big boys, with an all-around weight average of 165 pounds. This squad makes a promising varsity and the sky will be their limit. They allowed a total of 13 points to be scored against them while they drove home 96.

Victory margins were ranked over the following: (Due to lack of opposition some teams were played twice) Webster Springs, 14-0, 13-6; Gauley Bridge, 6-0; Meadow Bridge, 28-0, 31-0; and Montgomery, 8-7. The tie was with Gauley Bridge, 0-0.

Halfback John Hamon emerged as the stand-out in the back field. He picked up the most in rushing yardage and was tops in scoring. Outstanding defensive man was Mitchell Williams, who played in the back field and on the line. A promising figure to fill the center vacancy on next year's team is Larry Ellison, who held this position for the Cubs. According to Coach Poole, Ellison never made a bad center during the game and is a good blocker.

Grim expressions of concern are seen on the faces of the junior high cheerleaders, players and Coach Bernard Poole, right, as they watch the Cub edge to a 7-0 victory over Gauley Bridge.

"This is one of our weak points, boys, and Nichols is the 'bone-head' who needs improvement," Coach James Gladwell could be saying to the varsity cage squad, as he shows Nicky one of the finer points of foul shooting. Pictured, kneeling, are Jack Perk-

Fighting Grizzly Quintet Displays

The Grizzly Quintet wrapped up their season boasting an 8 win, 13 loss record, with Coach James Gladwell and Assistant Robert Burruss supervising. It was an up-and-down season for the Bears with most of the wins posted in early games on the schedule and the losses coming during the latter games.

The biggest game on the schedule was with Princeton and it turned out to be the best played game. Although the Bears lost to the Tigers 67-52, the latter was regarded as one of the best teams in the state, and Summersville led almost continuously throughout the first three quarters.

Webster Springs fell prey to the Gladwell men three games, the first 82-73 in which Robert Prater emerged high point with 19; the second 75-47, in which Jack Perkins was high with 17; and in the sectional tournament, 85-76, which was a much closer game than the score reveals, as Ed Bell scored 26 points, Perkins 24, Jack Blankenship 19, and Ed Grose 16 for the only scorers for Summersville. After defeating Webster in the tourney, Summersville met

8-13 Record In Up-and-Down Season

Gassaway and fell 94-85. Perkins was high man with 26 points and was trailed by Grose's 23. In previous meets with Gassaway, the Bears stopped them once by a 78-63 score, but were defeated in another 72-68.

In the first game of the season, the Grizzlies used an over-time to down Sutton 57-51; Bell scored an impressive 19 points this game. However, Sutton came back at a later date and tromped the Bears 91-75.

Richwood proved to be one of those tough opponents for the Bears as they racked up three victories over the same. The first was in the warm-up tourney and was by a score of 73-61 with Irvin Moore scoring 22 points; the second game was a 84-73 loss for the Bears; and the last, an 81-54 defeat.

Gauley Bridge also turned out to be difficult as they skimmed a 61-54 win over Summersville; Grose threw in 25 points to lead all scorers. The Travelers won by a higher margin in a second game by the tune of 65-52 but Perkins took high point honors with 21.

Despite the teaming of Grose and Perkins with 31 and 19 points, respectively, Clay drew a 74-69 edge over Summersville in a close scoring rendezvous; Clay racked up another win 88-63.

Fayetteville handed the Bears a 71-57 trouncing early in the season; but Summersville, sparked by Perkins and Grose with 20 and 17 points to their credit, retaliated with a 74-64 upset.

During the warm-up tourney, Summersville gave Cowen a 60-41 shellacking, and later in the season defeated them again 65-55; but in the last game of the regularly scheduled season, Cowen handed Nicholas a 71-67 surprise upset. Grose chalked up 25 markers in the second game and Perkins 19.

Henry Lilly, 8, drives in and shoots his special under arm lay-up as Jack Perkins, 11, stands ready for the rebound in this Fayetteville game.

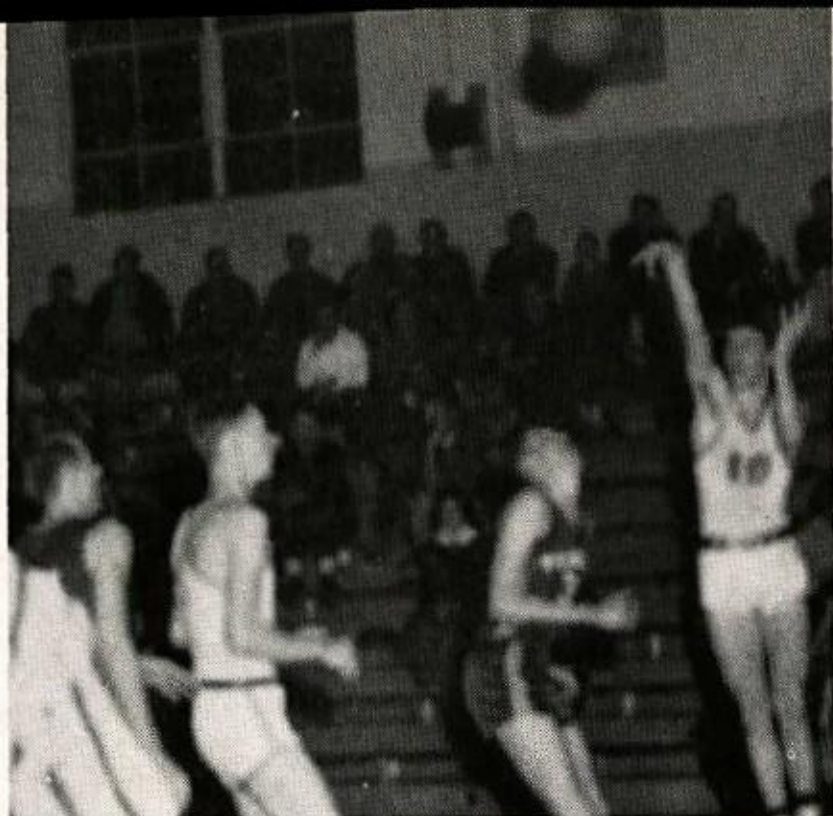

Seniors, Ed Grose and Jack Perkins

With a hand in his face, Jack Perkins, 11, fires a try at the goal, with Ed Grose, 10, forcing his way forward to snatch the rebound from any likely Cowen competitors.

Everyone waits expectantly as the ball settles down through the hoop, as Jack Perkins, under basket, and Robert Prater, hidden behind No. 23, fend off the Richwood intruders.

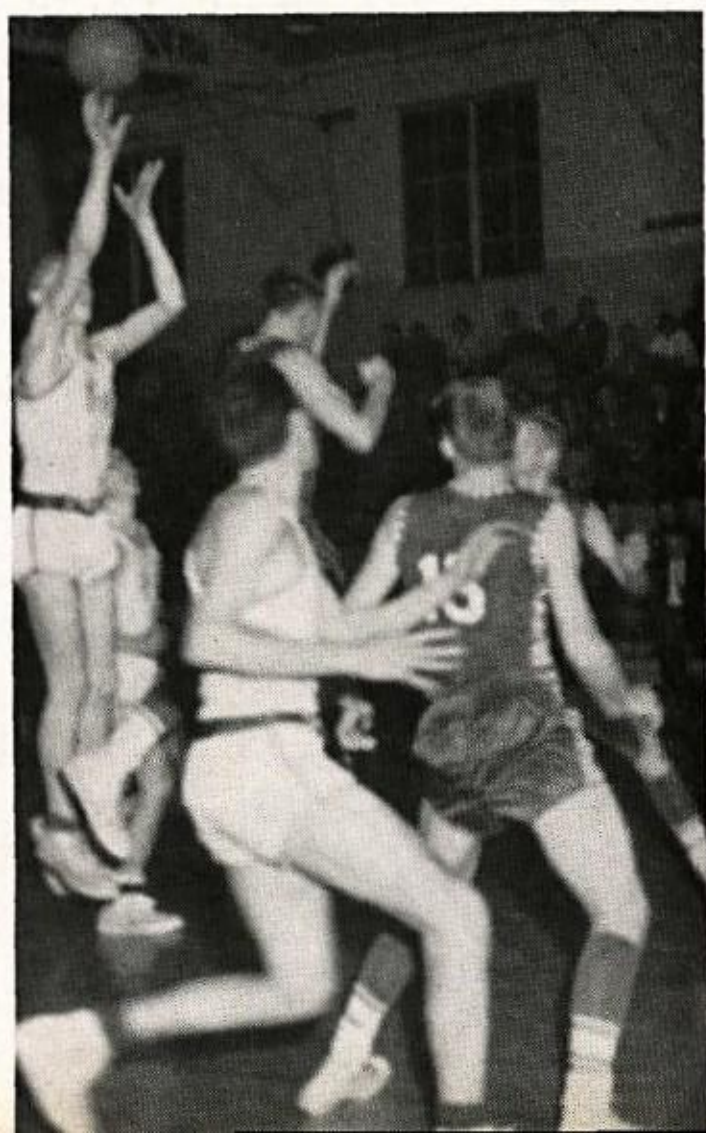

Edward Grose, 10, shoots a long jump shot from the corner, against Princeton as Irvin Moore, 14, comes in to guard.

Spark Bears To Victories

High into the air, for the shot, goes Irvin Moore, 14, in the Bear's attempt to dethrone Princeton. Robert Prater waits tensely to see if it will be good.

"All right boys, when I pitch the ball, you go up for the tip," Coach Robert Burruss briefs the B-Squad on a few minor basketball technicalities. Preparing to jump are Jack Blankenship and Van Summers with Coach Burruss handling the ball. Taking in the instructions are Dave Lunter, Charles Alley, Tom Carte, Lawrence Young, Dave Holbert, Jimmy Cox, Walter Rogers, Joe Kirker, and John Lewis.

"Fleet as a deer on foot," might be the goal this year's track team is striving toward when they represent our school at various conference meets in the state. Although only started three years ago, track has done a great deal toward helping the Spring sport's program. Pictured kneeling are Curtis Lilly, Jimmy Cox, John Lewis, Tommy Carte, and Jimmy Rogers. Standing: Wade Rogers, James Thompson, Mike Bays, and Coach Robert Burruss.

Spring Highlights Baseball and Golf

Get-togethers for baseball pow-wows are a frequent sight on the campus during the Spring. Here a few team members meet to debate the season's possibilities. Seen with Coach James Gladwell are George Ritchie, Joe Kirker, Gene Ritchie, Joe Summers, Nicky Nichols and Van Summers.

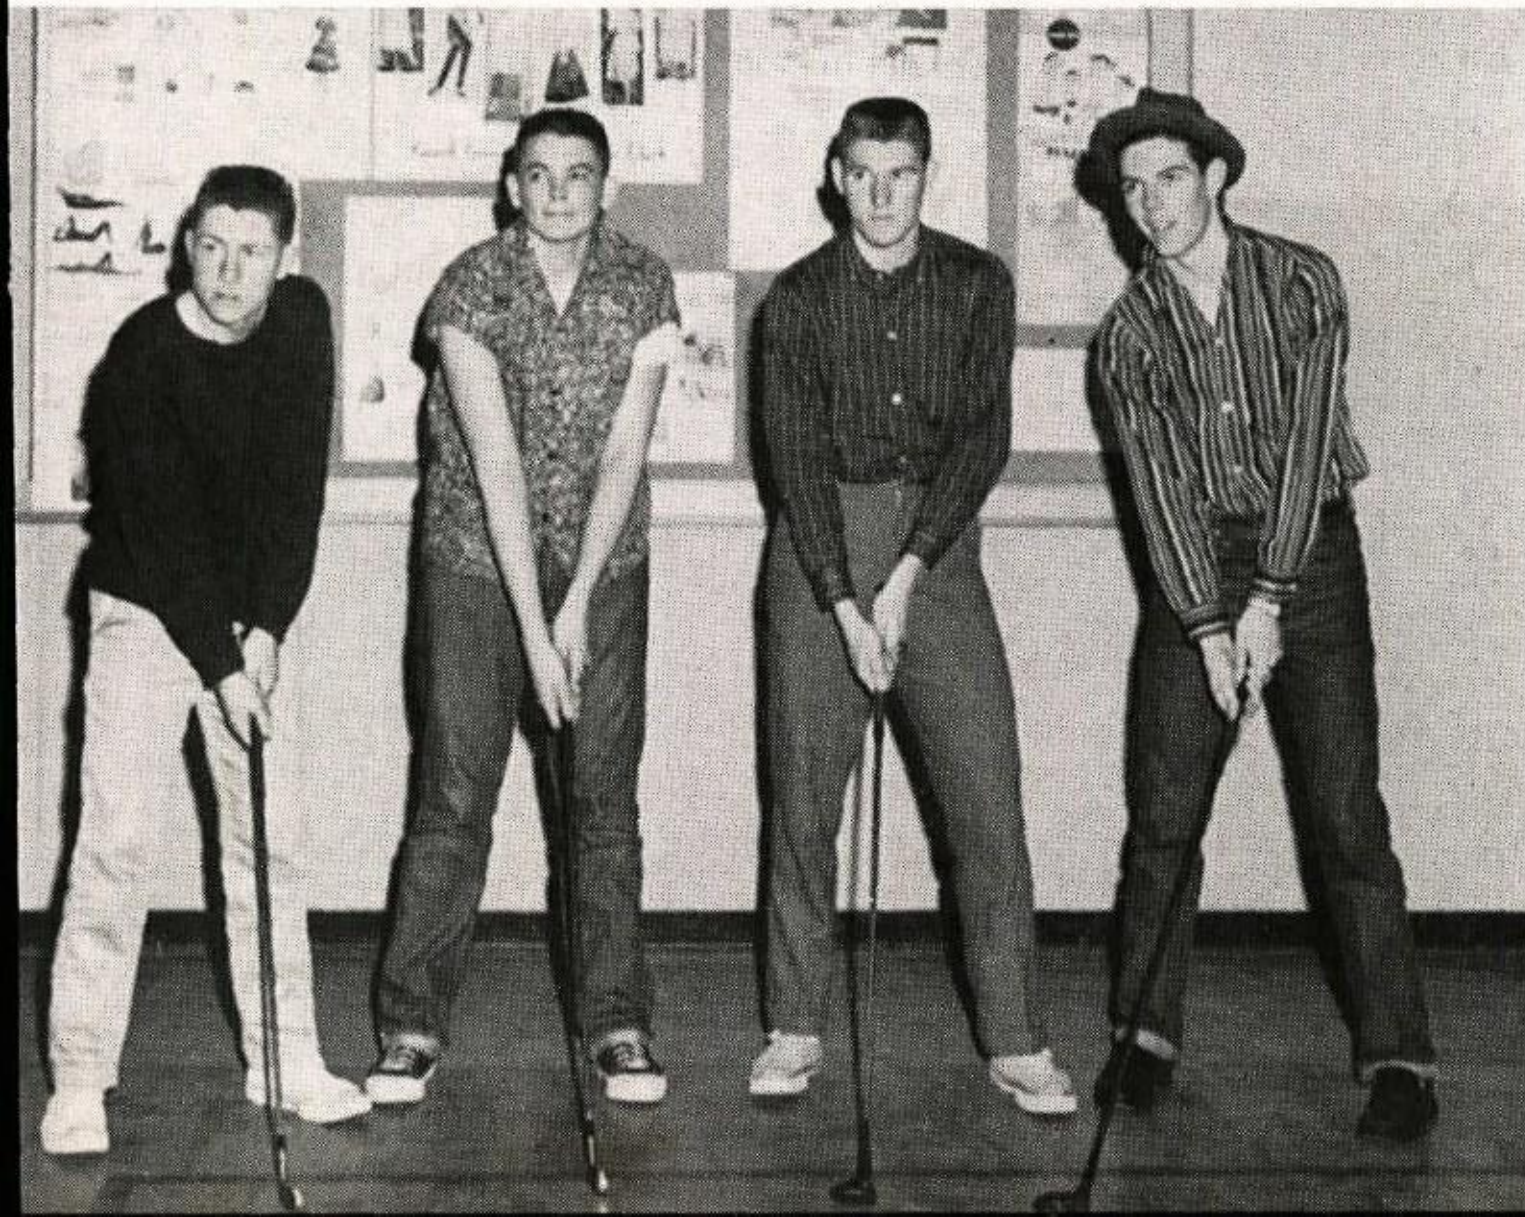

Wrestling was added to the sports calendar this year and the new team under the direction of Coach Robert Burruss fared very well in the meets they scheduled with neighboring high schools. Bob Bell and Wade Rogers demonstrate, in this picture the starting position for a match. Waiting their turn are the other team members Roger Chapman, Gene Strickland, Larry Ellison, Curtis Lilly, Charles Huffman, Jerry Cross, Jimmy Rogers, James Lucas, Wesley Bird, Bob McClung, Lonny Graham, Jim Thompson, and Bob Houghton.

Wrestling, Track Prosper Under Burruss

The newly formed Golf Club adds interest and excitement to the Spring season as more and more teen-agers are taking up their clubs and going for a round or two in the evenings after school. Although participation in the golf club has been slow in getting started, it does have certain benefits, such as free use of the golf course and free instructions. Members seen practicing in the gym till good weather rolls around are Nicky Nichols, Mike Trimble, Walter Rogers and Edward Grose.

Thank You

The book is finished. The work is over. You hold the finished product, the NICHLOSEAN, in your hands. To transform the NICHLOSEAN from a few dummy sheets into the yearbook, takes more than just the toil and trouble of the NICHLOSEAN staff. There are many unsung heroes and heroines who make the NICHLOSEAN a true memory book. It is to these people the staff dedicates this page to say, "thank you." To Biggs-Johnston-Withrow, the NICHLOSEAN printer, the staff gives a vote of thanks for their help and co-operation above and beyond the call of duty. We wish to convey our "thank you" to Mrs. Helen McCutcheon Brammer, '52, for her expert designing of our covers and carrying out our circus theme very effectively. A very favorite unsung heroine, Mrs. Kathryn Drennen, deserves more than just a "thank you" for her untiring devotion and encouragement. She was always ready to supply "that word" to complete our write-up with a professional touch and we shall treasure those moments she captured as the "roving photographer." A big "thank you" goes to Mrs. Helen Pitsenberger for doing the endless job of typing write-ups and handling the financial "end" of the book. To Sayre Studio for the excellent senior portraits and the underclass pictures, we owe a debt of gratitude. Last, but certainly not least, to the Faculty, the cooks, janitors, our many generous patrons and advertisers, we say "thank you" for transforming these dummy sheets, reams of copy and pictures into the 1958 NICHLOSEAN.

The joyful exciting time is over; the big tent floats reluctantly to the well trodden ground. As the heart of the small child is suddenly saddened by the departure of the circus and all the wonder that goes with it, so our hearts are saddened as the stakes are pulled from the earth and we head for the world of decisions, tension, successes, and failures. A familiar sight at the big top, the clown, underneath the white painted face, and the cheery red smile, also feels a pang of sadness as he removes the grease paint and dons his place in society leaving behind the joy, laughter, and merriment of the ring. But the friends he made, all the fun and the lessons he learned, linger in his mind as he turns to say farewell to our "Big Top" and travel on to another stop.
